

TEAM BUILDING ART & STENCIL

Team Building Art & Stencil

Team Building is a work philosophy where participants are seen as members of interrelated groups and not only as individual members. Team Building consists of a set of dynamics aimed at understanding how these groups function and behave.

Why Team Building?

- It improves interpersonal relationships within the company.
- It helps groups improve their internal cohesion.
- Promotes training and integration of the human resources from a dynamic approach.
- Promotes individual and group communication and confidence.
- Strengthens cooperation, tolerance and respect.
- Promotes, develops and improves leadership attitudes.
- Increases creativity and flexible thinking.
- Encourages experiential learning.
- Increases flexibility in the achievement of skills and abilities.
- Improves overall group performance in fun and relaxed environments.
- Improves productivity compared to other groups where members only act as individuals.
- Increases innovation and competitiveness of organisations.

- It encourages a goal-oriented attitude and keeps the team on track towards the goal.
- It fosters trust among team members, offering leadership responsibility and assigning responsibility to other team members.
- It trains the leader in skills and abilities related to team actions and conflict resolution in groups.
- Provides spaces to work on prioritizing actions and objectives and keeping the team focused.
- Fosters a leader who recognizes the strengths and weaknesses of his or her group and provides appropriate feedback.

BRIEF – LENGTH: 2 HOURS

Promoted values: collaboration, respect, playful, team work, empathy, excellence, creativity, innovation, improvisation, learn by doing & artistic spirit.

Workshop description: It's an experience where the usage of stencils and paint spray technique are developed. Every participant would be able to create between one or two personal artworks to take home and a communitary mural, where the whole team will participate, will be done too.

First, the frame is anchored with paint, left to dry and then finished with a stencil and paint spray.

Once the stencil image has been captured, variations can be made with spray and paint, left to the creativity of each participant.

What does the workshop include? Assembly/Disassembly, gurú, assistant, frame 30x30, spray paint, stencil's, paint, coach, overall/apron, floor protection & paint tray.

Location needs: We need tables so that participants can be comfortably placed and work accordingly. Besides, one or two more tables for the let-to-dry phase and an extra one for materials.

Important Highlights

- Assembly/Disassembly: We prepare the place for an optimum activity realization that takes no more than one or two hours. Once the workshop is done, we take our belongings but we do not take care of the after general cleaning. If needed to do so, there will be an extra charge.
- This experience is attached to the availability once it's decided you want to hire it.
- To keep the price we sent and book the experience we charge 50% in advanced and the rest the day before the activity is scheduled for.
